DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1, and 3-6 are pending and examined on merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claims 1, 3-6 remain rejected for reason of record set forth in the two previous Office actions under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kato et al (1983, Nucleic Acid Research, vol. 11, pages 8197-203).

Applicant argues that the instant claims recite "95 %" and the prior art does not teaches nucleic acids that are at least 95 % identity to the recited sequences. However, applicant argues with limitation not commensurate in scope of the claims because the instant claims are still drawn to a nucleic acid sequence having at least 95 % identity with "an antisense sequence" of SEQ ID NO:7 and an antisense from nucleotide #52 to #67 of instant SEQ ID NO:7 has 100 % identity to the corresponding sequences in Fig. 2 at page 8200 of the Kato et al.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1, and 3-6 remain rejected for the reason of record under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Applicant argues that the instant claims meet the written description requirement but the Office maintain this rejection because the instant claims do not sufficiently describe nucleic acids that are at least 95 % identical to the sequences recited in the claims.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
